“ Uncle Les will always be remembered as such a kind and gentle uncle of mine. I can remember when he moved to Texas and hating to see him and his family move so far away. Jerry and I would have so much fun with the kids when they would come to the farm. He helped Jerry get ready for what he could expect being on a police department since he had spent time in the force himself. When he and Aunt Norma came up from Texas for visits, they brought the best tasting fruit I had ever eaten. It didn't last long, so fresh and juicy. He also had long talks with my dad (Frank) about old fishing trips and who caught the biggest one and would tease each other. He will be sadly missed but I know he is happy in Heaven.

Fond memories forever

“ I remember Uncle Leslie and Aunt Norma coming up from Texas every year when I was a kid. They'd visit Grandpa (Frank) and Grandma (Alma). Living so. Lose we got share in the visits too. He was always a kind and gentle man. I loved just listening to him talk. Grandma always had a pie made and I remember everyone sitting at the kitchen table having pie and coffee. Loved seeing them every year. God bless the entire Campbell family. He will be missed.

Loving memories,
