“ To Mother with Love,As I look back on my life, and I have told you before that GOD couldn't have picked a better mother for me. You would insist that you could have done things differently but I wouldn't be the person today if you had. I know that you loved me and prayed for me because you always told me so in the cards and letters. You would say what a good person, daughter and mother I was. Your encouraging words wanted me to be just like you. We have cried together and prayed together. You were never ashamed to share your faith. You gave me gifts that were close to your heart and I will cherish them forever. I sit here and look at your picture and admire what a blessing you have been to me. I miss you so much. I know you are watching over me. When I cry, I can hear your voice. I wish I had more time to be with you. You were loved and admired by many people. Your faith was an inspiration especially to me.I will see you again Mom in the sweet by and by. We shall meet on that glorious day.Thank you for loving me.Sandra Gail

“ Shirley was a childhood friend and star pupil of my mother (her elementary school teacher). My memories consist of game-playing at recess, geography matches on Friday afternoons, along with math competition and spelling bees. Shirley was very competitive. She was also musically talented, playing the guitar, etc. It seems that God gifted her in many ways.May the family of Shirley find comfort in Jesus' words, "I go to prepare a place for you that where I am, there you may be also." That will be a glad reunion day for all of you and scores of others as well.May God Bless all of Shirley's Family and give you Peace and Comfort.Shirley (Latham) Harrell

“ Shirley, Meeting you, talking with you, and reading your letters showed me what a wonderful person you were. Our discussions about God and the Bible, while at your home on our visit was a breath of fresh air. You were a Christian that held to her Godly convictions, no matter what others might think. I pray I will be there in Heaven with you some day, so we can continue our talks. Love always, Mike P.S. I will make sure to take good care of your daughter, Tammy.

“ Dearest little Mommy, I was your 3rd born. I was the hardest for you to deliver and probably raise. I know your spirit is in Heaven with our Lord, and on the day of resurrection your body will come out of that grave to join your soul. I will see you again one day. That is the hope I will hold on to. It is what will get me through the rest of my life. The day you left this world and entered into your eternal dwelling I received a card in the mail from you. The Lord timed it that way. I got to speak to you on the phone the morning you left and hear your voice and tell you I love you and listen to you tell me you love me. How I will cherish that. You were a good mom. Till we meet again, I will keep my faith in our Lord and Savior and serve Him the best I can. I will never stop telling of what a wonderful Mom I had and how she loved the Lord and her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and family. You go rest now Mommy, you have earned that. Watch and wait for me to join you. Your loving daughter, Tammy Jo

“ Im so heart broken over you leaving but, God had a plan for you that you now know what the promise of your faith was based on . I do believe when you walked through the gates of heaven that Christ himself stood and greeted you with a hug . Well done my faithful servant. I love you mom. You were my friend. You made us kids strong and smart and that will carry on for generations to come. Thank you for your praying for us for all these years. They have been answered Amen ! With forever a loving memory of you in my heart your Son Chris
